

World Conservation Badge

Description: Panda in black and white color with green background and purple edge.

Wearing position: To be worn under the Region Badge on the right sleeve.

Complete the following:

1. Knowledge

- (a)
 - (i) Understand the objectives and work of Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation Department (“AFCD”) and Environmental Protection Department (“EPD”).
 - (ii) Understand the objectives and work of two different type of green organizations.
- (b) Understand the following global environmental problems and their effects on human's living environment:
 - (i) Ozone depletion
 - (ii) Global warming
 - (iii) Diminishing of rain forest
 - (iv) Acid rain
- (c) Understand the following ecosystem:
 - (i) The Earth ecosystem
 - (ii) The atmosphere, hydrosphere, lithosphere
 - (iii) The biosphere
- (d) Know 20 endangered species in the world or in Hong Kong and the reasons for being on the verge of extinction.
- (e) Understand the concept of sustainable development.

2. Study

- (a) Study one of the issues related to environmental protection or nature and submit a report.

3. Practice

- (a) Complete one of the following with prior approval:
 - (i) Participate in a nature conservation camp for at least 1 night;
 - (ii) Conduct a survey on country parks and propose recommendations according to the result; or
 - (iii) Create an environmental checklist to list the DOs and DON'Ts for camp/large scale outdoor activities and give suggestions for improvement.