

Electronics

Complete the following:

1. Know the principle of a semi-conductor and know how to make a simple circuit utilizing capacitor, coil and resistance.
2. Display four sets of circuits assembled, one of which must be a simple radio receiver. Explain in plain language to the assessor how they work.
3. List four electrical appliances for use at home and four for industrial use. Choose one of the items and explain how it works.